Graduation Rates
BSN Program
Year	Percent Completion	Number of Graduates vs Admitted	Number not included due to family, financial, medical, or personal issues
2019	70.4%	50/71	0
2018	72.7%	56/77	1
2017	72.1%	44/61	4
3 year average	71.8%	150/209	5

Calculate by starting with number of students who enroll in their first nursing course who have fully matriculated into the BSN program (and not drop/withdraw from course during the 1st two weeks of their first course) during one academic year. Subtract the number of students who are not included due to family, financial, medical, personal issues, or those who transferred to another program. This constitutes the denominator of the fraction. Count the number of graduates who completed in 150% timeframe (of those who started in this cohort). This is the numerator of the graduation rate fraction.

BSN -A Program
Year	Percent Completion	Number of Graduates vs Admitted	Number not included due to family, financial, medical, or personal issues
2019	100%	15/15	0
2018	89.5%	17/19	0
2017	95.5%	21/22	0
3 year average	94.6%	53/56	0

Calculate by starting with number of students who enroll in their first nursing course who have fully matriculated into the BSN-A program track (and not drop/withdraw from course during the 1st two weeks of their first course) during one academic year. Subtract the number of students who are not included due to family, financial, medical, personal issues, or those who transferred to the BSN-B program track. This constitutes the denominator of the fraction. Count the number of graduates who completed in six semesters (of those who started in this cohort). This is the numerator of the graduation rate fraction.

BSN -B Program
Year	Percent Completion	Number of Graduates vs Admitted	Number not included due to family, financial, medical, or personal issues
2019	61.8%	34/53	0
2018	64.15%	34/53	0
2017	55.81%	24/43	0
3 year average	58.54%	92/149	0

Calculate by starting with number of students who enroll in their first nursing course who have fully matriculated into the BSN-B program track and transferred in from the BSN-A program track (and not drop/withdraw from course during the 1st two weeks of their first course) during one academic year. Subtract the number of students who are not included due to family, financial, medical, or personal issues. This constitutes the denominator of the fraction. Count the number of graduates who completed in nine semesters (of those who started in this cohort or transferred into the cohort). This is the numerator of the graduation rate fraction.
