PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to the Code of Conduct expected of students enrolled in programs at Trinity College.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Code of Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of the rights of others. This includes the property of other students, property owned or managed by Trinity College of Nursing & Health Sciences, UnityPoint Health, and other community clinical educational settings and their employees. When a student’s behavior becomes a concern to College administration, faculty/staff members, or is observed by other students to be a threat or potential threat to self or others, the student will be contacted and the situation assessed. Standards that will be utilized in the evaluation of expected behavior and the determination of unprofessional behavior include the following:

- Existing federal, state, county and municipal laws, ordinances and regulations
- UnityPoint Health, Trinity/Non-Trinity policies, procedures, rules and regulations
- Trinity College policies, procedures, rules and regulations
- Code for Nurses of the American Nurses’ Association 2015
- American Registry of Radiologic Technology Code of Ethics 2009
- American Association for Respiratory Care Professional Code of Conduct
- Nursing Critical Objectives Policy

Students are expected to recognize their professional responsibility to themselves, patients, families and other health care professionals. They are also expected to adhere to a code of conduct that is considered acceptable as a professional health care student. Students are advised to read the specific program sections for program standards.

Examples of expected behavior include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Display professional behavior in college and health care environments.
- Practice within the legal and ethical limits of professional health care, recognizing the Standard Code of Ethics for the specific program of study.
- Conform to codes, regulations and policies governing employees and students in clinical settings.
- Respect and maintain confidentiality.
- Protect privacy of information.
- Use principles of safety.
