The details of my NSL loan will be described to me in the following documents: Statement of Rights and Responsibilities, Federal Nursing Student Loan Fact Sheet, Truth-in-Lending Statement and the Nursing Student Loan Program Master Promissory Note.

SECTION II: AUTHORIZATION

If this application is approved, the borrower (student) will be required to sign a loan agreement, the master promissory note, for the amount(s) borrowed. The master promissory note represents a loan that must be repaid. The borrower will be responsible for paying any principal, interest, and other fees as defined in the master promissory note. The borrower may refuse to accept or may reduce the amount of any loan for which he/she has applied.

If the borrower fails to make payments on the note when due, and the note is placed with a collection agency, he/she will be responsible for the total cost of collection including collection agency costs, reasonable attorney fees, and any penalties and interest incurred to collect the account. If the loan is placed with a collection agency due to non-payment, a collection agency fee of 25% (33% for second placements) or the maximum amount allowable by law, whichever is lower, will be assessed and will be due and owing at the time of the placement.

I understand that my approved application will require me to sign a master promissory note which represents a loan that must be repaid. I also understand that I may refuse to accept or may reduce the amount of any loan for which I have applied. My signature certifies that I have read and agree to the terms and conditions of the note and the Statement of Rights and Responsibilities (see separate documents).
