Services to Students

Provision of reasonable accommodations by the College is viewed as a shared responsibility between the College and the self-identifying student. The College assists students, faculty, and staff in providing auxiliary aids and services to ensure that the educational environment is accessible to all students.

While the College strives to accommodate students, auxiliary aid and services do not include measures that fundamentally alter the academic program of the College. For more information, visit our website:

Auxiliary Aids & Services Provided

Reasonable academic accommodations that are designed to provide equal opportunity to students with disabilities include, but are not limited to:

2. Examinations – Accommodations may be made to minimize the effect of a particular disability on a student's performance. Accommodation which alters the form or format of an exam shall be made in consultation with faculty.

4. Referrals – Advocacy and appropriate referral to community resources.
